RE: CPSRP Certification

Dear Kelvin:

I am pleased to congratulate you on the attainment of your Certified Peer Support & Recovery Professional credential. This is an important professional milestone and evidence of your commitment to high ethical and professional standards of care.

For more than 40 years, the Connecticut Certification Board has supported the development of a competency-based workforce of credential individuals in the field of prevention, substance use treatment and recovery, and co-occurring disorders. We value our partnership with Peer Support & Recovery Professionals and the Connecticut Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, and we look forward to promoting your continued professional development. You are welcome at any time to share your thoughts and ideas about how we can best serve the people of Connecticut.

Please note: The renewal date for your CPSRP credential is 11/1/2028.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Quamme
